

Natick Education Foundation Spelling Bee

14th Annual!!

“BEE” A BOOSTER

The Natick Spelling Bee sponsored by the Natick Education Foundation is a community tradition. Bankers, business people, realtors, representatives of community groups and schools, politicians, and Natick citizens spell, cheer, laugh and have a great time while raising funds to support public education in Natick. The 2010 Bee will be May 12th at 7 pm at the Natick High School.

We would like to invite your company / organization to be a part of this community event. There are several ways you can do this:

$2500.00 underwrites a specific cost such as printing, sound system, decorations, etc. Donation will be announced and appear in program book, full page ad in program book. Team entry fee is included if desired.

$5000.00 Underwrite major expenses of the Bee. Sponsorship will be mentioned in all media releases and program book. Full page ad in program book. Presentation of check can be made at beginning of Bee. Your Banner will be hung on back drape and be visible at all times and on Cable Television. Team entry fee is included if desired.

$10000.00+ Become the “BIG HONEY” of the Bee, and receive the adoration of the entire community as well as all of the exposure and publicity mentioned above. Double page ad in the program book. Your company representative may present check and make remarks before the event.

Over 40 teams representing the entire community participated in the Bee last year, and your support of the Natick Education Foundation (NEF) will enjoy a wide audience. Last year, NEF raised over $18,000.00 at this event. With your help, we can exceed this goal, and add to the number of grants presented to Natick’s public school teachers this year.

Yes, Our Company wishes to become a major sponsor of the 2010 Spelling Bee to benefit the Natick Education Foundation.
